Today's Program

USS Nautilus-Operation Sunshine and Retired Navy Captain Shepherd Martin Jenks

Edwin Oviatt introduced our speaker, Shepherd Martin Jenks. Shepherd is a retired Navy captain with 27 years of service in the submarine fleet, and an ordained minister. In 1958, Shepherd was Navigator of the USS Nautilus, the 1st nuclear submarine to cross the North Pole. Shepherd was born in Berkeley, CA and was a graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy.

During his Navy career, Shepherd specialized in submarines. Before retiring, he commanded two nuclear submarines and a nuclear submarine support tender. During his service, he spent time playing cat and mouse with crazy Ivan submarines. After retirement from the Navy, Shepherd was ordained as a clergyman in the Episcopal Church and as a fellow resident is a voluntary Chaplain to our Veterans at the Yountville Home.

A very informative documentary about the historic trip under the polar ice cap by the world's first nuclear submarine was enjoyed by all!
